AMERICAN MINOR

In the warm and elegant home space, the American minor wall cloth is like a melodious pastoral poem, gently singing about the warmth and dream of home. It uses delicate and soft colors as a pen to outline a simple but not romantic picture, as if the distant American town style, cleverly integrated into every inch of texture.

The use of retro tones and exquisite pattern design, whether it is scattered small floral, or gentle and delicate stripe texture, all reveal a casual romance and freedom. They slowly spread out under the cross of light and shadow, putting on a gentle coat for the living room, so that every corner of the home exudes a touch of nostalgia and warmth.
